v.

DETENTION ORDER

JOSEPH W. TAYLOR,

Defendant.

The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

2 Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable,
3 from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

4 (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 5 counsel;

6 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 7 Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined 8 shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 9 connection with a court proceeding; and

10 (4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States
